

AFC Line Up

Featuring Eddie Rainey of Georgia -.Friday and Saturday

Phill Cox of Missouri – Friday and Saturday

Sunday Morning features Steve Williamson

Thursday September 8, Starts off with Registration and Tailgating and a cookout Thursday night.

The contest extravaganza is Friday night with prize money. TBA

We will have green coal for beginners

Bring something for the Auction or Iron in the Hat. We will also draw for the tool box so bring a tool. Auction and tool box is Saturday Afternoon.

Eddie Rainey will forge pieces to a Gothic vise and tools that he uses in his shop and business.

Phill Cox will do an in-depth study of a #25 Little Giant. How to evaluate a hammer for repairs. How to repair a hammer and tools for a #25. This will be the first time for the south for this information about #25 so don't miss it. Lots of Q & A.

Historic Tannehill State Park – Exit 100, I-20-59, 20 miles west of Birmingham, AL. Camping at the park or hotels in the area.

Pre-registered attendees pay $50 and AFC membership is required; AFC dues are $25 per year and include 6 issues of the Bituminous Bits. Registration at the conference will be $60 plus membership for 3-days and $35 plus membership for 1-day, per person. Again AFC membership is required